They were encouraged by the prospects of contributing to environmental conservation and rural development through beekeeping initiatives.

Conclusion:

The collaboration between G NGR College and the Gandhi Seva Sadan Epiculture Centre has proved to be a valuable educational experience for our students. The visit not only provided them with practical knowledge but also ignited their passion for a field that plays a crucial role in our ecosystem and economy.

The cultural exchange program initiated through the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between GCW Gandhi Nagar and GCW, Udhampur has yielded several positive outcomes:

Enhanced Cultural Awareness: Students from semi-urban colleges have had the opportunity to immerse themselves in the diverse culture of the big city. This exposure has broadened their cultural horizons, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of different traditions and lifestyles.

Academic Enrichment: The exchange program has facilitated academic enrichment. Students have gained access to resources and facilities in the big college, allowing them to engage in research, projects, and coursework that may not have been available in their home institutions.

Networking Opportunities: The program has provided a platform for students to build a valuable network of contacts in both academic and cultural spheres. These connections can be advantageous for future collaborations, internships, and career opportunities.

Boost in Confidence: Performing in a big college in a major city has boosted the confidence of students from semi-urban colleges. It has shown them that they are capable of competing at a high level and has instilled a sense of self-belief.

Community Engagement: The program has extended beyond the campuses, involving local communities. Cultural events and performances have been open to the public, promoting a sense of unity and pride among the residents of the semi-urban areas.

Long-Term Partnerships: The MOU has laid the foundation for long-term partnerships between the institutions involved. It sets the stage for continued collaboration in education, cultural exchange, and community development.

Cultural Diplomacy: This initiative has not only benefited the students but has also acted as a form of cultural diplomacy, fostering goodwill and understanding between different regions and communities.

Harnessing Renewable Energy

Jammu and Kashmir, a union territory rich in natural resources, has taken significant steps towards harnessing renewable energy for sustainable development. With the allocation of Rs. 109.85 crore under capital expenditure for Science and Technology in 2023-24, the UT aims to install solar and hydro power projects, establish innovation centers and demonstration farms, and provide financial support for research and development projects. Under the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Ujjwala Scheme, around 9000 solar agriculture pumps will be installed or replaced with an installed capacity of 90 megawatts. This initiative will not only reduce the dependence on fossil fuels but also help farmers in the region to reduce their energy bills. The Jammu Solar City Project aims to achieve a total of 200 megawatts of rooftop solar power plants, out of which 80 megawatts will be installed in 2023-24. This initiative will benefit around 20,000 households in the region, reducing their carbon footprint and contributing to the national goal of increasing the share of renewable energy in the energy mix. Under the Rooftop Solar Power Plants for domestic sector funded by the Ministry of New & Renewable Energy, 3000 households will be covered with an installed capacity of 10 megawatts during 2023-24. This initiative will not only help households to reduce their energy bills but also contribute to reducing greenhouse gas emissions. The Srinagar Smart City Project plans to install 3 megawatts of rooftop solar power plants in the city, covering 50 government buildings and 20 other buildings in different districts. The government aims to cover all government buildings in a mission mode, making the city more energy-efficient and contributing to sustainable development. NEW DELHI, MAR 22

Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh has written to CBI Director Subodh Jaiswal asking the probe agency to question Home Minister Amit Shah over his remark describing the Conrad Sangma government in Meghalaya in its previous term as corrupt, and to investigate that claim.

In his letter to Jaiswal, Ramesh stated that Shah in his public speech on February 17, 2023, said the then government of Meghalaya "was the most corrupt government in the country".

"Amit Shah is also the Home Minister of India. In his capacity as the home minister, he would surely have had access to information and facts that led him to this conclusion," he said.

For some inexplicable reasons, the home minister, who is also the former national president of BJP, has failed to act upon the information about the corrupt practices and instances of the then Meghalaya government, Ramesh said in the letter, dated March 21 which he tweeted Thursday.

"Therefore, in the highest national interest, we urge you to summon Shri Amit Shah and ask him to submit all the information and facts that led him to the claim of assessment and investigate the matter," he said.

"We also urge investigation of the letter of India any under the party or to suppress the letter related to the Meghalaya, in order to support the same after the Meghalaya elections are held as per leader's tagging by Jaiswal on Ramesh said. I am to the Div Com asking the probe question the minister Jai Singh categorically that Conrad Sangma government in Meghalaya is the most corrupt government in the country.

That of not, prevent the BJP putting the Sangma government to a test.

Outcome of Activity

Moot court is one of the most exciting activities for law students. The proceedings in a moot court mirror real-life court proceedings. The purpose of the activity is to help law students understand how real courts work and their proper code of conduct, the importance of dress code and the use of formal language. Mooting is a great way to develop one's confidence, speaking, writing skills and research acumen. Participating in moot courts is not just great for budding advocates but also for future Judges and arbitrators! Most universities hold intercollege or intra college mooting sessions which gives students a chance to network and work with their future competition.

The department of Political Science in collaboration with IQAC of Padma Shri Padma Sachdev Government P.G. College for Women, Gandhi Nagar Jammu organized a 'Moot court trial activity' highlighting Santosh Kumar vs State through CBI case and Vishakha and others vs State of Rajasthan case.

Outcome and Impact of Moot Court Case on college students and audience

1. It helped students to engage and understand legal issues.
2. It helped students analyse legal topics and work on its research.
3. Students learned to work in teams and learn from their teammates.
4. Students learned to demonstrate their advocacy skills and legal skills.
5. Students learned to improve their confidence and speaking skills.
6. Students learned from their peers and develop debating skills.
7. Mooting is intellectually rewarding and stimulating for budding lawyers.

The impact of both the cases on the spectators was spectacular. The teachers along with students appreciated the department's efforts to well display legal issues through mooting.
