FACULTY MEMBERS

2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-2022, 2022-2023

The Institutional Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Government College for Women Gandhi Nagar Jammu is committed to promoting continuous professional development among the faculty members. As part of our efforts to enhance the quality of education and pedagogical practices, we have been meticulously encourage the faculty members to attend Orientation Programmes, Refresher courses, and Faculty Development Programmes (FDPs). IQAC takes considerable efforts to ensure the maximum participation of faculty members in various online/face-to-face Faculty Development Programmes like orientation programmes, refresher courses, workshops, and training programs. College administration facilitates the participation of faculty members by sanctioning leaves and making proper arrangements for their assigned classes and other activities.

Outcome of Seminar on Cyber Hygiene

The event aimed to raise awareness among non-teaching staff about cybercrimes and the importance of practicing cyber hygiene. The following outcomes were observed:

1. Increased Awareness: The seminar successfully increased awareness among the non-teaching staff regarding cybercrimes and the potential risks associated with inadequate cyber security practices. Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of cyber hygiene and the steps they can take to protect themselves and the institution from cyber threats.
2. Knowledge Enhancement: The resource person delivered an informative presentation on cyber hygiene, sharing insights and best practices. Attendees acquired valuable knowledge on securing personal information, addressing software vulnerabilities, password management, and employing a cyber security framework. This enhanced their understanding of the importance of maintaining good cyber hygiene practices.
3. Active Participation: The seminar witnessed active participation from 45 non-teaching staff members. They engaged in meaningful discussions, shared their experiences, and raised relevant questions. This level of involvement demonstrated their eagerness to learn and implement cyber hygiene practices in their daily routines.
4. Practical Insights: Seminar provided practical insights into cyber security issues and solutions. Attendees gained a better understanding of the potential risks associated with outdated software, malware attacks, and data breaches. They also learned effective strategies for staying ahead of cyber threats and the importance of keeping software and operating systems up to date.
5. Motivated Non-Teaching Staff: The seminar motivated the non-teaching staff to actively participate in similar awareness programs and take proactive measures to enhance their cyber security knowledge.

Overall, the seminar on "Cyber Hygiene" achieved its objectives by creating awareness, imparting knowledge, and motivating non-teaching staff to adopt good cyber hygiene practices. The outcomes of the seminar will contribute to a safer digital environment within the college, reducing the risk of cybercrimes and enhancing overall data security.

Report of Seminar on Cyber Hygiene

The Department of Computer Applications Padma Shri Padma Sachdev Govt. P.G College for Women, Gandhi Nagat Jammu, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Department of Commerce, organized a highly informative seminar on "Cyber Hygiene." The seminar aimed to raise awareness among non-teaching staff regarding cybercrimes and the importance of practicing cyber hygiene in the digital age. The event was held under the esteemed patronage of Prof. Minu Mahajan, the Principal of the college, who emphasized the significance of such activities in keeping individuals safe from cyber threats.

The seminar commenced with a warm welcome by Prof. Mamta Gupta, Head of the Department of Commerce, who expressed the need for regular practice of cyber hygiene to ensure personal information security. The resource person for the occasion was Prof. Rohit Gupta, an esteemed expert in the field. Prof. Gupta highlighted the urgency of cybercrime awareness, considering the increased reliance on information technology following the pandemic. He enumerated crucial steps that should be taken to safeguard personal information and prevent cyber threats.

During his presentation, Prof. Gupta shared an insightful PowerPoint presentation on Cyber Hygiene. The presentation emphasized the importance of cultivating good habits around cyber security to proactively address online security issues and stay ahead of cyber threats. Cyber hygiene involves maintaining the basic health and security of hardware and software, ensuring protection against threats like malware. Prof. Gupta further discussed various problems that cyber hygiene is designed to address, including data loss, outdated software, inadequate antivirus protection, security breaches, password management, software and hardware updates, managing new installations, and implementing a comprehensive cyber security framework.

The seminar witnessed an enthusiastic participation of 45 non-teaching staff members who actively engaged in the discussions and presentations. Prof. Gupta's expertise and engaging presentation style captivated the audience, equipping them with valuable knowledge and practical insights into cyber hygiene.

The event was made possible through the diligent efforts of the organizing committee constituted for Cyber Jaagrokta (Awareness) Diwas. The committee, led by Prof. Rohit Gupta as the Nodal Officer, included esteemed members viz. Dr. Ashok Kumar, Prof. Rajinder Kumar, Prof. Poonam, Prof. Mamta Kundal, and Dr. Javaid Iqbal. Their dedication and coordination ensured the seamless execution of the seminar. The presence of Dr. Suresh Kumar, Coordinator IQAC, and Prof. Anuradha Gandotra, Head of the Department of Food Science and Technology, added prestige to the event.

Prof. Mamta Kundal played a pivotal role in coordinating the entire program, ensuring its success. The Department of Commerce provided technical support, enabling the smooth organization of the seminar.

Report on One Day Training Programme on Basics of Computers

In the rapidly evolving digital age, computer literacy has become an essential skill for individuals in various fields. Recognizing the importance of equipping the non-teaching staff with basic computer knowledge, a workshop on the basics of computers was organised by IQAC, Govt. College for Women Gandhi Nagar Jammu. The aim of this workshop was to empower the non-teaching staff with foundational computer skills that would enhance their efficiency, communication, and overall productivity.

The primary objectives of the workshop were:

To introduce participants to the fundamental concepts of computers and their significance in the modern workplace.

To provide hands-on experience with basic computer operations, including using the keyboard, mouse, and navigating the operating system.

To familiarize participants with essential software applications such as word processing, spreadsheets, and email.

To create a comfortable learning environment where participants could freely ask questions and interact with instructors.

The workshop was organised as a divided into several modules:

Module 1: Introduction to Computers

Module 2: Getting Started with Computers

Module 3: Essential Software Applications

Introduction to word processing software (e.g., Microsoft Word, Google Docs).
Creating and formatting documents.

Introduction to spreadsheet software (e.g., Microsoft Excel, Google Sheets).

Instructors and Resources:

The workshop was conducted by experienced trainers from the college Computer Sc. department. Each participant was provided with a computer workstation and relevant software for hands-on learning. Detailed handouts and reference materials were also distributed to participants to reinforce the concepts covered during the workshop.

At the end of the workshop, participants were encouraged to provide feedback on their learning experience. The responses were overwhelmingly positive, with participants expressing gratitude for the opportunity to enhance their computer skills. They were feeling more confident in their ability to use computers for tasks related to their job responsibilities. The workshop on the basics of computers for non-teaching staff was a resounding success. It equipped participants with foundational computer skills that will undoubtedly contribute to their efficiency and effectiveness in their roles within the college. As technology continues to play a pivotal role in various sectors, such initiatives are crucial for ensuring a digitally literate workforce.
